Thoughts.

Was it gun fire? Maybe fireworks...

Why do I hear gun fire during firework season? I think it's gun fire.

Again.

Last time, my building had a row of bullet holes along the front and through one window downstairs.

The police came and cordoned off the street 3 days later.

Thoughts

Although brief, about lockdown.

Rush of empathy.

Thoughts. Typing.

A brief voice or 2

I'm waiting

I don't want to look out. To be caught looking.

Just distant voices. And the wind blowing the blind.

Car tyres, faster, and over a drain.

Like a train. Da dun da dun.

The minutes are long

Gun shot. Again. More distant.

And the echo that could almost make it 2.
